SHE WILL NOT BE HOMELESS.

Capt. Conner's Wife Not to Be Evicted from the St. James.

A report that the wife of Capt. William M. Conner had been dispossessed from her apartments in the St. James Hotel, and was to be summarily put into the street to-day by her husband's creditors, caused no end of excitement and sympathy this morning among the former baroness's many friends.

Capt. Conner is at Mountain Valley, Ark., in an almost hopeless quest of health. Before turning over the hotel to his creditors, he had stipulated that he and his family should be allowed to keep their apartments there until the time of his lease expired, or about twenty months.

Last Friday Mrs. Conner received a dispossess notice, and it is said, has been in great fear that she might become homeless.

An Evening World reporter was unable to see her this morning, but a clerk at the hotel said:

"This rumor has become sadly mixed up in going the rounds, and does injustice to everybody. The new management has served dispossess papers on every body connected with the old regime, and as a matter of legal form, merely Mrs. Conner had to be served, too. She will not be turned out and will continue to occupy her apartments, according to agreement, until the time of Capt. Conner's lease expires."
